

Hawaiian Girls Made of Pipe Cleaners Sets Scene for Fete

By BETTY MITCHELL
DA 6-4438

Brownie Troop 1282 held its birthday party in the Scout hall last week. The girls had an informative, as well as a pleasant, afternoon since Girl Scouts Bobbie Moton and Virginia Dollittle came to show the Brownies merit badges earned in the Scouts, and explain some Scout activities to them. Troop 1282's leader, Mrs. Dolly Crain, and co-leader, Mrs. Betty Curtis, gave all the girls two-year pins. The Brownies who had fun at this celebration included Linda Crain, Virginia Matthews, Linda Lambertson, Virginia Menger, Linda Addington, Cathy Stanton, Sue Curtis, Anita Medina, Janis Grove, Terri Rae Matthews, Sue Brown, Paula Brown, and Diane Munn.

A lovely surprise was given Mrs. Chuck Ewing of Winlock Rd. last week end when a group of neighbors gathered to wish her happy birthday and "bon voyage" at the same time. The gift was presented to her in a novel setting since a miniature scene was made of pipe cleaner figures dressed as Hawaiian girls, and model airplane, and a small figure in traveling dress complete to suitcase leaving the plane. Since the traveling doll was made in small replica of the guest of honor, Mrs. Ewing was told to open her "suitcase" what did that surprised and happy lady find within but her birthday present given by the group in the form of cash and coins to buy what her heart desired while enjoying herself in that vacation land of Hawaii. The trip the Ewings began on Thanksgiving Day is a combined business and pleasure trip of a week's duration. Those who gathered to help with the surprise party, complete with cake and coffee, were Mrs. Polly Moorehead and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Lambertson and family, Mrs. Wendell Grove, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Askew and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Power and family, Mrs. Vida Jacobson, and Mrs. Martha Gavin. Mrs. Jacobson was the guest who baked the luscious cake.

Approximately 100 attended the last meeting of the local Women's Society of Christian Service on Tuesday evening, Nov. 20. The meeting was an invitational gathering for the entire church and presented one of the most interesting speakers of the year. Speaker was Mrs. Hugh Lerner of Long Beach who spoke on her recent experience in living with a farmer's family in Japan at a "work camp" type of missionary endeavor. Mrs. Lerner showed various articles brought back from Japan, and explained many of the points of Japanese culture. Following her talk a ministerial student who accompanied the group of which Mrs. Lerner was a member showed colorful slides of the Japanese and Hawaiian Islands and several views of the Aleutian Islands. Following the program the Ruth Circle was hostess for the meeting and served cookies and coffee to the group from a beautifully decorated table.

The Bunco Club held its last meeting at the home of Mrs. Joe Merrill, Danaha St., on Nov. 14. Those gathering round included Mmes. Chuck Donsi, George Halland, Al Langston, Robert Munn, John Monaghan, John Johnson. Prize winners for the evening were Mrs. Donsi as lucky first, Mrs. Halland, celebrating her second meeting with the group by winning second prize, and Mrs. Johnson taking home the consolation prize. All the ladies enjoyed ham and a chili, French rolls and coffee served by the hostess.

For those of you who remember the Dale Wickstroms who used to live in our area comes the news of an open house to be held for the Wickstroms at the Ocean St. home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beasley. The open house will be on this afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. Hostesses for the afternoon will be the World Friendship group of girls of the local Methodist Church who are under the leadership of Mrs. Beasley.

Another Thanksgiving Day has come and gone and this reporter sincerely hopes that each and every one of you had a wonderful holiday. It was truly a cause for thankful celebration at the Hubert Rampley home on Winlock Dr. since they were able to have their whole family around the dinner table. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Eager and their daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cheney of Fontana and their children, Richard, Carol, and Clifford; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rampley of West Covina and their sons, Dennis and Stephen; Mrs. Mary Murphy of Arizona, and Mrs. Mary Ratliff of Riverside were all at the festive board set with orange candles and holiday cloth in the patio of the Rampley home. Especially were they glad to have Chester Eager present since he was able to come home on leave from the Aleutian Islands where he is stationed with the U.S. Navy.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Ellis of Newton St. had a wonderful day entertaining their family. Guests round their turkey dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Senness, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Senness and son Teddy, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burke of Lancaster with children Barbara, Pat, Mike and Peter. On the day following Thanksgiving they had other holiday guests in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Price of Barstow with their children, Sally, Mary Lou, Nancy, and Donny.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie McFarland of Danaha St. journeyed to Hermosa for Thanksgiving with the George Todds. Also joining in the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Todd, and the McFarland children, Cathlene, Linda and Debby.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chiuadano of Crickwood St. had their turkey at the home of Mrs. Chiuadano's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Earhart, in Santa Ana. On Sunday they took another pleasant journey, this time to the Azusa home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Holbrook, former residents in our area.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monaghan of Danaha St. had a double celebration on Thanksgiving when they combined the turkey with a birthday dinner for their son Tommy. Guests at the Monaghans included Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Dysart of Santa Ana, Mrs. Bessie Dysart, also of Danaha St., and the baker of the luscious birthday cake, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Munn. Later in the afternoon merriment was increased by the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Nichols of San Pedro.

Joycees Set Up Direct Line to North Pole

Torrance youngsters who want to talk to Santa Claus this year will be able to do so by walking to their telephones.

A direct line to the North Pole has been provided by the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce. Children who want to talk to the jolly old gent may call FA 8-8180 any time between 6 and 8 p.m. from Dec. 6 to 22.
